

Luminița Burtic

Implicarea asistentului social în dezvoltarea unei comunități

Involvement of social worker in the development of a community

Abstract:

The work paper analyses the concept of community and how to realize a community profile and three models in working with a community as social development, social planning and social action. The paper is focused on the methods and role of the social worker in activate the strengths of a community and develop some abilities in dealing or solve the social problems.